

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

Chittenden County Opioid Alliance Project Director

On behalf of the Chittenden County Opioid Alliance, Chittenden County Regional Planning Commission (CCRPC) is seeking to hire a full-time Project Director to reduce the burden of opioid use disorders in Chittenden County using a Collective Impact approach.

The Chittenden County Opioid Alliance is a unique commitment from key state, local government, and non-profit leaders to put forth a comprehensive, mutually reinforcing approach to reducing opioid abuse and the ancillary burdens they bring to our community. CCRPC is the regional planning agency for the Burlington, VT region and is providing backbone support to the Chittenden County Opioid Alliance.

The ideal candidate is a high-energy individual who has strong interest and knowledge in project management, collective impact, and substance use disorder prevention, treatment, and/or recovery systems. The person should be a collaborative, enthusiastic, and positive person who has strong experience in facilitating and aligning efforts among diverse organizations and individuals under one structure. The individual selected must be a self-starter, able to work independently and stick to deadlines.

Bachelor's Degree in public health, public administration, public policy, social work, criminal justice, executive leadership, or related field with preference given to a candidate with a Master's Degree. Minimum of three years' experience in a governmental, for profit or nonprofit organization delivering human service/health care, education or other public services, at least one of which will have been in a supervisory capacity. Strong experience in process and meeting facilitation required. Certificate in project management or the ability to demonstrate commensurate work experience is preferred. Experience in community development work, public relations, program development and evaluation, and strategic planning is desired.

Please send a letter of interest and resume (with references and contact information) to Charlie Baker, Executive Director, at: cbaker@ccrpcvt.org. The position will remain open until filled. Interviews will begin in early August. See the full job description at <http://www.ecosproject.com/chittenden-county-opioid-alliance/news-and-resources/> No phone calls please. Applicants should be available for an interview.

CCRPC is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
